

Department of Hindi
Rammohan College
(Affiliated by University of Calcutta)

Program specific outcomes (PSO) and course outcomes (CO)

Name of the programme :B.A. Hindi general (CBCS)

Programme outcomes: The students of department of Hindi will gradually progress in their critical faculties. They will use their newly developed skill to critically evaluate the literary texts. The students will be able to analyse the relationship among language, literature and society. They will be able to communicate effectively and efficiently with the others and having the ability to understand behavioural approach of human beings. They will be able to express their ideas clearly and effectively in social interaction.

Programme specific outcomes: They can become a writer, teacher, interpreter, anchor, reporter, editor, stenographer, translator in different ministries, Rajbhasha Adhikari etc.

Course outcomes

CC 1: Hindi Sahitya ka Itihaas:

This course enables the students of the department of Hindi to understand the social, cultural, historical and political aspects of this time period and their impact on literature of this particular time.

They acquire the knowledge of Hindi literature with evaluation of language.

CC 2: madhyakalin Hindi kavita: this course enables the students to acquire knowledge of the movement of the Bhakti Aandolan through these poetries in context of different socio-economic environment in all over the country.

CC 3: Aadhunik Hindi kavita: This course will help the students to identify the modern literary reaction through these poetries in context of change of society followed by the post independence situations.

CC 4: Hindi Gadhya Sahitya: Students acquire the knowledge of Hindi novel, nibandh and stories as well as the differences in their art and impact on literature.

DSE A2: chhayawad: students acquire the knowledge and circumstances of the chhayawadi Kavya Aandolan through this poetries.

Students acquired the knowledge behind subject-matter and ideological background of chhayawad.

DSE B2: Premchand: Students acquire the knowledge of Indian socio-culture aspects during the time period of Premchand through this Hindi prose.

LCC 2 (1): Hindi vyakaran aur sampreshan: Students acquire knowledge of both formal and informal communication, to write grammatically correct Hindi language.

