

RAMMOHAN COLLEGE

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOME FOR GENERAL LEVEL TEACHING

The completion of the English General level Programme will enable a student to—

- Learning English helps one to communicate and exchange views easily.
- The course emphasises on the understanding of literature and language alike allowing students to develop overall.
- The course opens avenues to several career options as they learn creative writing and critical thinking.
- Introduction to the various genres of literature, understanding the milieu of the composition and finding relevance to contemporary world refines their perspective towards life.
- Communication English develops the candidate to emerge as a confident individual in future.
- Training in Creative writing allows them to pursue a career as a creative composer.
- The initial semesters focus on teaching English grammar and language which is extremely important for writing or speaking correctly and appropriately.
